The Policy of the "Open Eye."

London, July 1.—The Sliding Scale Committee of the Iron and Steel Workers of South Wales has adopted a resolution supporting Mr. Chamberlain's scheme of preferential trade. The committee recommended a reasonable alteration in the fiscal policy of the country so as to place the iron and steel industries of Great Britain on an equality with competitors abroad.

The Chamber of Commerce of Leeds has passed a resolution that the fiscal relations of Great Britain with other Powers must be considered. The Chamber urges the Government to collect information such as will facilitate the formation of an impartial judgment.

July 2.—A meeting of 54 members of the Unionist party in the House of Commons who are free-traders was held yesterday under the presidency of Mr. Henry Hobhouse.

Mr. Hobhouse explained that the aim of the meeting was to assist the Government and to ensure a frank and fair inquiry into Mr. Chamberlain's scheme. A committee would be appointed to examine the probable effect of the suggested changes on the unity of the Empire and on the social and industrial welfare of the United Kingdom, and to explain to the country the objections to the protective taxation of imports.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said that the meeting wished to save the party a crushing defeat. The confusions of Unionists held on June 24 was evidently organised by protectionists. Mr. Chamberlain's scheme, if adopted, would provoke a strong struggle between colonial and home interests. He criticised the proposals with a view of showing the impracticability of compensating the consumer for the increased cost of food caused by an import tax on foodstuffs, by re-adjusting the duties on tea, sugar, and tobacco.

Vicount Goschen said he doubted whether Mr. Chamberlain would be able to sweep the country with so many Unionist members against him. He denounced Mr.
 Chamberlain's fiscal policy as most dangerous, and urged the necessity of restricting the inquiry to statistical information having the Government stamp. Private compilations were not of sufficient authority.

At a meeting of the National Liberal Federation last night Mr. H. H. Asquith, M.P., moved a resolution to the effect that Mr. Chamberlain's scheme of preferential trade with the colonies would endanger the relations of the motherland with the colonies, and would threaten the Empire's stability. Mr. Asquith protested against the use of the rusty, lumbering of retaliation. He urged his countrymen to choose weapons of precision which science had forged, which the British equally with the Germans were able to handle, and which were truly arms for quick fire at long range in the modern industrial campaign. What the colonies failed to purchase of Great Britain probably consisted of commodities which the motherland was unable to supply. A system of preference would exasperate mutual jealousies between the colonies, and would lead to the taxing of all raw materials coming to England.

The resolution was carried.
 Mr. Augustine Birrell, K.C., in moving a resolution calling upon the Government to declare its fiscal policy, said that a Government without a fiscal policy was unfit to remain in office for five minutes.

The resolution was carried.
 Although 150 of the Unionist members of the House of Commons are in favour of the Ministerial proposals for an inquiry being held into the fiscal policy of the Empire, 50 per cent. of the party, chiefly representing combined urban and rural constituencies, decline at present to participate in either of the concerted movements for an electoral campaign during the Parliamentary recess.

 mons who are free-traders have formed a

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

On several occasions we have found it necessary to comment upon the lack of facilities given in the Courts of this Colony to reporters to perform their duties, and again we are compelled to refer to it. We do so this time with the hope that the Government will step in and do something to remove the difficulties that seem to be constantly thrown in their way. The Magistrates have already been appealed to, but from their scant courtesy has been received, and instead of using their influence to alleviate the trouble, they seem to act in the opposite direction and shut their eyes to the obstructions constantly confronting the pressman. In almost every other portion of the world —that is every portion where the flag of Great Britain flies—the Press as the advocate of British rights, is treated with respect, and officials do what is possible to render the labours of its representatives light, but here it is vastly different. If Hongkong came within the jurisdiction of the Dowager Empress of China she could scarcely do more, outside of actual suppression, to stifle the press than is done by the Magistrates. And this is a British Colony in a foreign quarter of the world where it is eminently desirable that British interests should be fostered as much as is possible. At the Police Court there does not seem to be any official to look after matters, and the Magistrates are evidently not capable of conducting the whole of the proceedings themselves. The result is that often much of the very limited accommodation is taken up by Chinese who have no business in Court rooms at all, and the press representatives are compelled to sit or stand amongst the motley crowd who generally assemble in the Court or its corridors. Our reporter has been compelled to do that on two or three occasions within the last month, and only yesterday in Mr Kemp's Court he had to stand whilst two Chinese boys, who refused to move when first requested to do so, sat and fanned themselves in the only chairs which were not occupied by Counsel and others engaged in the case then proceeding. A similar thing occurred when a case of great interest to the public was being heard a week or two ago. The whole of the chairs were taken up, some by persons who had no need of seats at the table, and the result was that our representative had to sit amongst a number of Chinese at the end of the Court room and take notes on his knees. It was only because the case was of great interest to the public that he did so, or otherwise he would not have submitted to the indignity and inconvenience which Mr Kemp did not see fit to notice. Then, again, the old privilege of consulting the depositions has been taken from the Press, and until the reporters almost went on their knees and begged to be allowed to see the charge sheets they were also kept out of reach.
In other countries, special accommodation is provided for the Press; ushers are in the Court room to see that persons who have no right there are kept from the tables; the charge sheets —properly dated—are made available throughout the whole of the day, and the depositions can be seen in the Chief Clerk's Office at the conclusion of the case to which they refer. Here, none of those things are done, and in the interests of the reading public who rightly expect reports of proceedings in the public Courts, an alteration should be made. Even if no one else was concerned, one would think that the Magistrates would not need to be asked to show a little courtesy to fellow Englishmen and would see that they were treated with more decency than the natives who infest the Court.
The following significant comment made by the Kobe Chronicle will serve to show how the Magistrates and officials here are regarded by others outside:—“The Hongkong Court officials seem to be very much ‘down’ on reporters at Hongkong. Complaints are sometimes made, especially at Yokohama, regarding those accommodation afforded reporters in Japanese Courts, which is a matter that will be remedied as the law courts are gradually rebuilt, but in this country there is at least no obstacle placed in the way of reporters obtaining information. Indeed, the courtesy of Japanese Court officials in the matter of giving information that is of public interest is all that could be wished, and apparently forms a great contrast to that experienced by the newspaper representatives from the Courts in Hongkong.”

The P.W.D.

At the meeting of the Legislative Council to-morrow, Hon. R. G. Sheehan will ask the following question:—Has the recommendation of the Public Works Commission that the following additions be made to the Public Works staff, viz:—2 Executive Engineers, 1 Assistant Engineer, 5 Overseers, 1 Clerk, been carried out, and if not, why not?

Empire Day.

The East of Meath has received the following letter from Sir Henry Blake, Governor of Hongkong:—“I am glad to inform you that your suggestion as to an ‘Empire-day’ has been adopted by our Executive Council, and May 24 will in due course be added to the list of public holidays at present settled by Ordinance. I think it probable that here, as in Singapore, the holiday will be called ‘Victoria-day,’ and the occasion will be taken in the future to foster the Imperial idea.”

Band at King Edward Hotel.

By kind permission of Major Radcliffe and Officers, the band of the 33rd Burma Infantry, will play the following programme of music, at the above Hotel, during dinner, to-morrow, Friday, the 31st inst. (weather permitting):— March.....“Washington Post” Overture.....“Die Felsenmühle” Selection.....“San Toy” Song.....“Libelious” Selection.....“Les Cloches de Corneville”
Valse.....“A Greek Slave” Gaiety.....“Baldad Baldori” GOD SAVE THE KING.

Mitsui Bussan Company.

We have received from the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, or Mitsui and Co., two handsomely arranged books. One is entitled, “The House of Mitsui,” and the other, “Mitsui and the Shipping Port Kuchinosu.” Both are well illustrated by the titles, deal with the businesses conducted by the well-known firm and the latter press is made more interesting by the illustrations with which it is profusely interspersed. In “The House of Mitsui” an interesting history, which deals with the progress of the family since the 15th century, is given.

Desperadoes at Large.

Yesterday morning at about 1 a.m.
(see the N. C. Daily News of the 25th July) four long-sentence men contrived to make their escape from the British Consular Gaol. They gagged and handcuffed the warder on duty and took his keys. They managed to reach the warder at such an hour as is inexcusable. The men are all desperate characters and as far as we can ascertain the two Americans charged last year with stealing Mr Derby's houseboat are among them. The police are making a diligent search for the fugitives, but so far have been unsuccessful. The whole affair seems to have been most carefully planned.

Sir Patrick Manson.

Those who know the valuable services rendered by Dr. Patrick Manson to medical science will be pleased to observe that he has received the honour of knighthood.
The title of K.C.M.G. is conferred upon him by the King for special services in connection with tropical diseases. Dr. Manson, who is Medical Adviser to the Colonial Office, formerly practised his profession in Formosa, Amoy and Hongkong, being for some years head of the firm which now consists of Drs. Hartigan, Rennie, Steadman and Harston. It is in great measure due to his discoveries and researches that the great discovery of the malarial-carrying mosquito was brought about.

Children when Teething.

HAVE more or less diarrhoea, which cannot be checked effectually, as the cause cannot be removed; but the diarrhoea can and should be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, and an occasional dose of castor oil to cleanse the system.
During the summer months children are subject to disorders of the bowels and should receive the most careful attention.
As soon as any looseness of the bowels is noticed, Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given. Get a bottle to-day; it may save a life. For sale by all membrance of Her Most Gracious Majesty

Penalty for Selling the V. C.

The War Office, in consequence of men having sold their Victoria Crosses, has decided to issue a new Royal Warrant calculated to deal with such cases. Firms or private individuals are quite within their legal rights in purchasing these coveted decorations, but in future any holder of it who sells the Cross, or loses it and cannot give a satisfactory explanation of his loss, will be liable to be deprived of the annuity which accompanies it. Victoria Crosses are fetching from £50 to £100 at present from ardent numismatists.

at the Kowloon Hotel, during dinner, this evening (weather permitting):—

Formosan Gold Mine.

Mr Kimura, of the Fujita Gumi, Tokio, which is working a gold mine at Kinsosaki, Koching, told an interviewer at Shinnoki that the yield of gold at the mine at present is 5 kan per month. The company is introducing improvements in the way of digging. Since the year before last (says the Kobe Herald) they have spent Yen 280,000 on the mine, and are ready to spend Yen 320,000 more when certain investigations are concluded. The company is arranging to build an electric tramway in the mine to facilitate the conveyance of ore and other materials.

Kowloon Bowling Green.

Some very close and interesting games have taken place during the past week for the Club Championship; the two leaders, Mr A. Ritchie and Mr J. Macdonald, had a very hard fight last evening. Both played very evenly in the early part of the game, and in the last few holes Mr Ritchie played a very “fine” game and ran out winner by 21 to 15. This gives Mr Ritchie the lead in the competition, but he is followed closely by Mr A. Ewing, Mr J.
Macdonald, Mr D. Gow, and Mr T. H.
Robertson. On Saturday afternoon, starting at five o'clock, there will be a match between two teams representing Kowloon Ducks and Kowloon. The greens are in splendid order, and as both teams are very strong the games are sure to be close, and some good play will be witnessed. The teams are as follows:—

LOCAL AND GENERAL.The Japanese Army.

The Kobe Chronicle reports that General Ogasawara, commander of the Osaka Army Division, has informed the various departments that the office hours will be continued as before until further notice, and that the hours cannot at present be reduced, as is usual during the period of the summer vacation.

Light in Dark Places.

According to the Shanghai Mercury, H. E. Sheng Kung-Pao, after inspecting the electric light plant at the Russo Chinese Bank at Shanghai, placed an order with Mr Durand for electric-light installations for both Imperial Palaces at Peking, amounting to about one and a half lacs, these plans being a present to Her Majesty the Empress.

Japanese and Shanghai Club.

Under the heading of “A Sensible Move,” the Kobe Herald publishes the following paragraph:—“We learn from a Shanghai despatch to the Osaka Mainichi that the Managers of the Shanghai Office of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Yokohama Specie Bank, Mitsui Bussan Kaisha and Osaka Shosen Kaisha have been put up for the Shanghai Club.”

Lieut. Carlyon Bellairs.

Lieut. Carlyon Bellairs has been invited to contest King's Lynn in the Liberal interest against Mr T. Gibson Bowles, the present Unionist member. Mr Bowles was returned in 1900 by a majority of 167.
Lieut. Bellairs was in charge at the Kowloon Torpedo Depot a few years ago. He is a prolific writer, and has produced a large number of magazine and newspaper articles during the past ten years.

Crown Agents.

The Strait Times quotes the Hon. R.
Sheehan's recent questions in Legislative Council, relative to the Crown Agents' commissions and the Hon F. H. May's replies, and says:—“The information and figures given tend to prove that the Crown Agents have done pretty well out of the Hongkong Treasury. It will heighten public curiosity here to find out how far they have profited at the expense of this Colony. They apparently act on the principle that the Colonies are run for their benefit.”

A Telegraphist's Mistake.

A curious incident is told by an Indian paper, as follows:—“What funny mistakes the telegraph people do make! The other day one of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries, sojourning for a time at Darjeeling, received a telegram from a colleague at Calcutta to the following effect: ‘Meet train, receive girl, tall, wear glasses, take to meet.’ The wife of the recipient of the telegram naturally objected to having her husband meet a tall girl, or one of any stature for that matter, and take her to an hotel. The mystery was solved by the sagacious guess that ‘girl’ was the telegraphist's way of putting ‘Gail,’ the round-the-world missionary investigator, now-travelling in these parts.”

Burglars at Kowloon.

Burglars still pursue their nocturnal calling at Kowloon. Last night the houses of Messrs A. Wright and Dang Cheo were visited, and in all about $500 worth of jewellery and money was stolen. The thieves, it is believed, gained entrance by ascending a ladder leading to the top of Mr Dang Cheo's house, and on getting into the rooms contented themselves with searching the clothes and taking whatever money and valuables they contained. They did not ransack any of the boxes or drawers.
Amongst the stolen property was a gold watch and a pair of rimmed spectacles belonging to Mr Dang Cheo. The thieves got away without being heard, and it was not until the occupants of the houses awoke this morning that they found out they had been visited.

Russian Forces in the Far East.

The Kobe Herald of the 17th July says:—“The latest official returns compiled by the Japanese Government show that there are 25,000 Russian soldiers at Port Arthur now, as follows:—

Infantry.....	15,000
Cavalry.....	5,000
Artillery.....	3,000
Engineers.....	2,000

The Japanese authorities doubt the report about the despatch of two divisions of Russian troops to the Far East. It is true that the Russian authorities are making arrangements to increase the number of troops in the Far East, but the reinforcements will probably be sent out in small batches. The decision to increase the troops in the Far East is understood to have been reached at the recent conference at Port Arthur.

Remember the Name.

YOU may have an attack of diarrhoea, dysentery, or pain in the stomach one of these days, and it will be well to remember the name of a medicine that will cure you. Say it slow—Chamberlain's Colic Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.

ASK ANYONE.

Who has had occasion to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea or bowel disorders, and see what they say.
No one has ever used this medicine without praising it for its always cures. Get a bottle to-day; it may save a lot of trouble, and perhaps a life. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendors: WATKINS
